

RCPSC Pain Medicine Examination Preparation Day

Date: Saturday May 5, 2018

Venue: Department of Anesthesia and Pain Management, McL 2-423, Toronto Western Hospital

Course faculty: Geoff Bellingham, Anuj Bhatia, Philip Chan, Kshitij Chawla, Sean Curran, Najam Mian

Limited places: Please contact Jamal Kara [Jamal.Kara@uhn.ca] if you want to register for the course.

Course registration fee: $ 500

0800	Registration and Practice Examination I
0900	The RCPSC Pain Examination: Matching the syllabus with the resources	Anuj Bhatia
0930	Important pain guidelines to be aware of	Geoff Bellingham
1015	TEA AND COFFEE BREAK
1030	Knowing the basics: Important topics in pain anatomy, physiology, and assessment	Anuj Bhatia
1115	Important topics in cancer pain and sleep medicine	Philip Chan
1140	Important topics in pediatric pain	Anuj Bhatia
1200	LUNCH
1245	Practice Examination II
1315	Important neuropathic pain syndromes: trigeminal and post-herpetic neuralgia, CRPS, persistent post-operative pain	Najam Mian
1345	Acute pain topics: acute-on-chronic pain, IVPCA, epidural and peripheral nerve blocks for acute pain management	Sean Curran
1415	TEA AND COFFEE BREAK
1430	Proceed with caution: things to know about opioids and cannabinoids	Geoff Bellingham
1515	Treatments for pain: psychotherapy, physical therapy, and interventional procedures	Sean Curran
1600	Important musculoskeletal pain syndromes (including low back pain and fibromyalgia) and headaches	Kshitij Chawla
1645	Discussion and feedback	